

I found the course very informative and helpful. It gave me the knowledge to take better photographs. It also gave me the knowledge to understand where I had gone wrong and how to rectify my mistakes. For this type of business this portfolio & photography course was invaluable as it is so important for prospective clients to be able to see good quality work and good quality photographs help with this.

Sarah Speakman.